Saratoga Springs Mayor Ron Kim to deliver 2022 State of the City Address, with Introduction by Congressman Paul Tonko

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. – Saratoga Springs Mayor Ron Kim will deliver the 2022 State of the City Address at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 19, in the Music Hall of Saratoga Springs City Hall. Congressman Paul Tonko will introduce the mayor and the public is invited to attend.

In his first State of the City Address, Mayor Kim will detail the overall status of city operations as well as the opportunities, goals, objectives, and challenges for the city in the upcoming year. Introduction of the newly established Infrastructure Task Force, a report on the progress on the East Side Fire Station, an update on the Downtown Greenbelt Connector, and facilitation of a return to open government and civility are among the topics to be presented.

The State of the City Address begins at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday March 19, 2022 in the Music Hall at Saratoga Springs City Hall at 474 Broadway in Saratoga Springs, NY and will be open to the public. The address will also be available via live stream at <https://www.saratoga-springs.org/>.
